

SAC-ISRO Honoured with Four Eminent Awards at National Geospatial Awards 2025

Space Applications Centre, ISRO honoured with four awards at National Geospatial Awards 2025 (Edition II), organized by IIT Bombay's FOSSEE GIS team under the aegis of the National Mission on Education through ICT (NMEICT), Ministry of Education, Government of India.

The awards were conferred during the Open Source GIS Day 2025 celebrations held at IIT Bombay on 17th July 2025, in the august presence of Shri A. S. Kiran Kumar, Former Chairman, ISRO.

1. National Geospatial Enabler Award: Space Applications Centre (SAC), ISRO
2. Best Geospatial Platform: Visualisation of Earth Observation Data and Archival System (VEDAS) portal, SAC-ISRO.
3. National Geospatial Professional (Leadership) Fellow: Mr. Shashikant A. Sharma, Group Director, GAWG-EPISA.
4. National Award for Women of Excellence in Geospatial Science and Technology: Ms. Shweta Mishra, Scientist/Engineer-SF, VWAD-GAWG-EPISA.

VEDAS Team with Best Geospatial Platform Award

Space Applications Centre (SAC), ISRO conferred with National Geospatial Enabler Award

VEDAS portal, SAC-ISRO conferred with Best Geospatial Platform Award

Shashikant A. Sharma, Group Director, GAWG-EPSA received National Geospatial Professional (Leadership) Fellow Award

Shweta Mishra, Sci/Engr.-SF, VWAD-GAWG-EPSA received National Award for Women of Excellence in Geospatial Science and Technology

