

Please download any high resolution satellite imagery in geotiff format. One source of such data is given below.

<https://resources.maxar.com/products-samples>

You can then host the data on local Geoserver to create WMS services.

Once the WMS service is in place, you can use use the same to develop and test your system.